

A Cholangiocarcinoma Mini-Symposium
Hosted by: University of Arizona Cancer Center
And Cholangiocarcinoma Foundation

8:00 – 9:00 Patient Meet and Greet/Registration/Breakfast

9:00 – 9:30 Registration and Breakfast

9:30

Welcome

Dr. Rachna Shroff

Chief, Division of Hematology/Oncology

University of Arizona Cancer Center

9:35-10:00

Cholangiocarcinoma Foundation and ICRN Update

Stacie Lindsey, President and Founder

10:00-10.20

Current landscape for advanced CCA: Frontline space

Dr. Aaron Scott

Associate Professor of Medicine

Chief, GI Medical Oncology

University of Arizona Cancer Center

10:20- 10:50

Approaches to Hyperbilirubinemia: Therapy or Obstruction?

Kelley Rone, DNP, RN

NP, Hematology/Oncology

Mayo Arizona

10:50- 11:10

Targeted Therapies: Where do we stand?

Dr. Junaid Arshad

Assistant Professor of Medicine

University of Arizona Cancer Center

11:10- 11:30

Q and A, Refreshments served

11:30-11:45

Break

11:45 - 12:00

Patient Story

William Shaw

12:00 - 12:30

Combining Immunotherapy & Chemotherapy to Augment Response

R. Katie Kelley

Professor

UCSF Comprehensive Cancer Center

12:30-12:40

Q and A

12:40 -1:30

Break – Lunch served

1:30-2:00

The Future of Targeted and Immunotherapy for CCA

Dr. Anthony El-Khoueiry
Associate Director, Clinical Research
Associate Professor
USC Comprehensive Cancer Center

2:00-2:10

Q and A

2:10- 2:30

Liver Directed Therapies

Dr. Shamar Young
Chief, Interventional Radiology
Associate Professor
University of Arizona Cancer Center

2:30-2:50

Surgical Management of CCA

Dr. Taylor Riall
Chief, Division of Surgical Oncology
University of Arizona Cancer Center

2:50-3:00

Q and A

3:00- 3:30

Case Presentation and Panel Discussion

Panelists: Drs. El-Khouiery, Scott, Greer, Woodhead, Khreiss, Arshad
Moderator: Dr. Rachna Shroff or Taylor Riall
INSERT TRAINEES

3:30-3:45

Advocacy and Closing remarks.

Melinda Bachini
Chief Patient Officer
Cholangiocarcinoma Foundation