

Celebrating the Legacy of Martin Luther King Jr.

Join us for inspiring events this MLK week!

Community Circle: Reflections on MLK's Legacy

January 21st, 2025

Time: 12:00 - 1:00 PM

Location: COM-T Social Hall

Join us for a reflective community circle, where participants can share their thoughts on racial justice, healing, and the impact of Dr. King's work. We'll provide refreshments as we discuss how MLK's vision continues to shape our fight for health equity.

RSVP Here

---

Lecture: MLK Day Reaffirms Our Dedication to Health Equity

January 22nd 2025

Time: 12:00 - 1:00 PM

Location: Zoom

Speaker: Bryan Carter, PhD, Director, Center for Digital Humanities, College of Humanities, Professor, Africana Studies

This lecture will explore Dr. King's dedication to health equity and its continued relevance today. Following the presentation, there will be a Q&A session to engage participants in meaningful dialogue about racial justice and health.

RSVP Here

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact the Office of Access, Community, and Belonging at com-belonging@arizona.edu.

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA
COLLEGE OF MEDICINE TUCSON

Access, Community
& Belonging